

Terms & Conditions 2019

---

When committing to a marketing project with Ellison Marketing Ltd over an agreed timescale, Ellison Marketing Ltd will act as your external marketing resource and can be used for alternative forms of marketing equal to the cost of the project, however this is at the discretion of Ellison Marketing Ltd.

Early termination or change in circumstance will result in Ellison Marketing requiring full payment for this project. If the client delays the project due to unforeseen circumstances, Ellison Marketing will honor the work outstanding however payment is still to be made on the due dates outlined in the proposal.

For any ongoing agreements, where we act as your external marketing company it is our standard terms and conditions that if you wish to cancel your agreement with Ellison Marketing, there will be a 3 month notice period required.

When providing card details for Facebook or Google, please be advised that we will use this as our form of payment for our management fee, but please be aware there is a 3% charge. If you would prefer to pay by BACS please let our Accounts Team know.